"We have been gifting the Heading Home With Your Newborn books, authored by Dr Laura A. Jana and Dr Jennifer Shu, to our first-time and returning parents since the 1st edition was published in 2005. Our families love receiving this easy-to-read and informative book, giving them accurate and up-to-date information that they can refer to as needed. Not only is this AAP book a great resource, but it is also a confidence-building tool with which we welcome families to our practice. We highly enjoy utilizing these books as well as the American Academy of Pediatrics' many other available resources."
